

Open to IFA member companies only; no registration fee is applicable.
Please e-mail your rsvp to the IFA Secretariat: spalmie@fertilizer.org

---

The IFA Technical Committee is delighted to announce that it will organize the following technical workshop on 2 April, in conjunction with the 2012 IFA Regional Conference in Tashkent, Uzbekistan.

---

What?

Technical workshop on
“Safe, Sustainable Phosphate Fertilizer Production in a Changing Global Landscape”

When?

Monday, 2 April 2012 from 10h30 to 18h30

Where?

Tashkent, Uzbekistan

Why participate?

Learn about the latest developments with regard to NORM safety matters, phosphogypsum disposal and re-use, and uranium recovery in the phosphate sector to ensure that you are maximizing your revenue potential and implementing the most recent safeguards for your employees.

Preliminary programme:

10h30 - 12h30	Morning Session: General  A Sustainable Operating Model for the Phosphate industry Cases studies on phosphogypsum uses Uranium extraction technology options The "Comprehensive Extraction" approach Feedback and discussion
12h30 - 14h00	Buffet lunch
14h00 - 15h30	Afternoon Session: Radiation safety for NORM  Introduction to NORM and the Basic Safety Standards The IAEA Phosphate Industry Safety Report Training and capacity-building: a competency-based approach
15h30 - 16h00	Coffee break
16h00 - 18h30	Afternoon Session (cont.): Safety, Sustainability and Resource Conservation  Score-carding and the "Triple Bottom Line" approach Stakeholder engagement Feedback and Discussion